

Advanced Options for Stand Construction

Valid for stands with at least 400 m² and opposite stands of the same exhibitor on both sides of an aisle. Feasibility and conditions must be checked by Deutsche Messe's Technical Event Management for each individual case.

Floor covering in hall aisles - only carpets are permitted as floor covering in hall aisles:

1. Possible between opposite stand areas of the same exhibitor
2. Any materials must be at least nonflammable pursuant to the DIN 4102-1 B1 or EN 13501-1 Cfl – s1).
3. Aisles must be clearly recognisable (different coloured flooring, markings etc.)
4. The aisle must be kept neutral and free of any obstructions (furniture etc.)
5. The floor covering must be conditioned and laid to the hall floor in such a way, that there is no risk of tripping, slipping (at least skid-proof class R9) or any other accidents which might cause personal injury or damage of any kind.
6. Service ducts must remain accessible
7. Logistics traffic may occur during build-up and, if necessary, during the event. Deutsche Messe and the Organisers do not accept liability for any damage.

Construction above aisles

1. Constructions above aisles are only possible between opposite stand areas of the same exhibitor, if they have been approved by the Technical Event Management of Deutsche Messe. Please request these at an early stage at the beginning of your stand planning.
2. A fire protection statement may be required and is chargeable.
3. Overhead installations above hall aisles must have a clear height of at least 4.00 m if the aisle leads to a hall gate and at least 3.00 m if it is a side aisle.
4. Advertising on constructions above aisles is only permitted, if these constructions connect multi-storey stands

Stand construction above 6.50 m

1. Possible for stands with at least 400 m²
2. Max. construction height: 7.50 m (also for 3-storey constructions)
3. If requested, feasibility will be checked according to location
